plates. Among its contents is the Anatomy of the Sexual Organs of the male and female—all their diseases and weaknesses; latest discoveries in reproduction; quacks, their receipts and specifics; nervous debility, local and general, from excess and indiscretion in youth. It describes the causes and effects of all discases of the generative system; it contains copious instructions for the perfect restoration of those who are prevented by impediments from entering the marriage state, with observations on the direful results arising from solitary and depraved habits; also, a professional dissertation, filustrating the results of chemical tests, and examination of the spermatora. Also, receipts for the proper treatment and cure of Gonorrhora, Gleet, &c., and every stage and form of Syphilis, secondary ysymptoms, &c. Price One Dollar. Send to Dr. HUN.

THE EVE AND EAR. DURING my late tour in Europe, I obtained several new Instruments and Remedies of incalculable value in my speciality. There is now to othing known to the faculty in either hemisphere with which I am not familiar, which, combined with an extensive practice for 30 years in the city of New York, enables me to restore SIGHT and HEARING in many cases hitherto deemed hopeless. Cateract positively cured by a new method, without pain; also, Squinting or Cross Eyes in a few seconds. Amaurosis cured in the majority of cases. Granulations, Ulcers, Films or Specs, and Watery Eye, invariably; also, Deafness, Singing in the Ear, and Discharges, by an entirely new process. My "Treatise on the Eye" (price 50 cents), also ARTIFIOIAL EYES, which move and look exactly like the natural eye, and are inserted without an operation, and all Bemedies, forwarded by mail. Consultations by letter receive expecial attention. receive especial attention.

BENTON'S GREAT WORK. ENTON'S THIRTY YEARS WISHING TO RETIRE FROM

CHAS. D. KIRK, Mozart Buildings.

WISHING TO RETIRE FROM active business to my farm, I now offer this place for sale. On it is a commodious Tavern House, one large three-story Stone Warehouse, also one of Frame, a Pork House, with capacity to staughter from 400 to 50 hogs per day, with good Stables and all necessary out-buildings. It has a stone landing of good depth of water and at all times free from mud. It now posesses a good Dry Goods and erocery Trade, and is widely known as a shipping point second to but few turns on the Ohio river from Louisville to Evansville. The location and character of the business of the place imperatively require other branches of business to be conducted, viz: A Tobacco Stemmery, &c. &c. all essentially necessary to supply the demands of the public, and which, if done, would increase the general business of the place amazingly. A large section of country from which, to this time, no trade has been derived (for want of roads), and neaver this print than any other will in a short time be brought to this place (as an order has issued from court for the opening of

MONDAY. - JUNE 30, 1856.

The Abolitionist of the Journal, on Saturday morning last, threw away the assumed disguises that he generally wears, and openly assumed the Black Republican livery. A petition has lately been sent to Congress by the traitors of Kansas, giving their version of the late action of Col. Sumner and the Sheriff's posse in the town of Lawrence, with their mendacious exaggerations and falsehoods. Prentice openly indorses it all, and gives it out to the people of Kentucky as reliable truth. Horace Greeley has not done more to show his decided sympathy with Abolitionists, and his determinstion to sanction all the outrages they have dared to commit, and that they still meditate, The Louisville Journal relates, how peaceably the people of Lawrence agreed to surrender up their arms, public and private; and then how Sheriff Jones took possession of the town, destroyed the tions, perpetrating thefts, robberies, and rapes.

But just now the stock in trade of the Aboli tionists is the outrages in Kansas. The most unscrupulous falsehoods and exaggerations are put forward and circulated. Rebellion is openly encouraged, and the vilest slanders published to the four winds to deceive the public, and thereby obtain votes for Fremont; and that is not all, this party of traitors intend to make Kansas free by the ballot-box in November, or they intend to do it with the sword; and the editor of the Journal. here in Kentucky, comes to their assistance in a tirade against Col. Sumner and the posse of Sheriff Jones. He informed his readers that the Black Republicans would postpone their objects four years, and support Fillmore: but now he is ready to postpone his objects, and help the Black Republicans. They could not desire a more efficient ally. The article of Saturday, in the Journal, will be hailed as the happiest indication of the times. It will be a full echo of the assurance of Blaikie, that We have had a great deal said about foreign influence in Kentucky; and here it is by a forsigner to Kentucky sentiment and policy. The immediate purpose is to satisfy the Abolition Fillmore men in the free States, that Fillmore will do them no injustice; that between Fillmore and army. Frament there is no material difference. No wender he has a foreboding that his treason able Black Republican capital here is Kentucky will be denounced; that his partisan Abolition indorsement of an Abolition document sent to Congress for an Abolition party purpose, will excite the indignation of Kentucky. He, no doubt, felt the wrongs his Yankee brothren have sustained in that this effort to forge a link of common sympathy between Southern Know-Nothings was comewhat perilous; but he determined to venture upon it. He had little to lose; for his Abo itionism is well understood now, and those who have sup- and county of Jefferson this (Monday) night at Sumner's sore head and the Kansas hotel, with streets. annot succeed by the ballot-bex. We ask Kentuckians to mark this foreign influence in our midst; this attempt to sell the influence of Kentucky to Black Republicanism. The South has nothing to fear from her enemies abroad, but from the sappers and miners she nourishes in her own bosom. The bold opponent can be met, but the crafty, insidious foe, that flatters and undermines you; that cheats you with pretended denunciations of your opponents, whilst he builds up their cause; who comes to you inviting sympathy for your uncompromising enemies, on acount of wrongs they pretend to have suffered : whilst he hides these villainies, and pours out his depunciations upon your friends, upon the report and at the bidding of your enemies, is himself a traitor, and should be so treated, and far more dangerous than the open foe. Whilst the Democracy of the free States condemn these Lawrence seditionists, and spend no sympathy upon them, the editor of the Journal ecomes their champion, espouses their cause, credits all their falsehoods and exaggerations, and hides their crimes from his readers. And this is the man who undertakes to give counsel and advice to the South: who, with brazen face, charges Buchanan with Freesoilism one day, and holds outrages.

The Constitution is an admirable document - short and to the paint. The finest spirit pervaded the meeting throughout. A long list of names were enrolled, and the members went to work in earnest. The organization is, perhaps, the best that could possibly have been made. The Disturbances in Kansas.

Horrible Atrocities Committed by the

We find in the Missouri Republican the follow Hughes, one of the clerks of the United States Investigating Committee, to Colonel N. J. Elliott, of Missouri, in reply to a letter from that gentleman Shannon. Smith will rule the land as with a rod clamor in the free States. He denounced the pointed for the purpose, submitted a copy of a soliciting information relative to the true state of of iron. affairs in Kansas:

LEAVENWORTH CITY, K. T., June 11, 1256. Dear Sir: Your favor of this date has just been received by me, soliciting information in regard to the condition of affairs in the Territory gener-ally, and particularly in regard to the murcommitted, by whom committed, the names of the parties killed and wounded as far as recollected, and other matters of interest touching the existing disturbances in Kansas Territory. I hasten to respond to your inquiries as far as my First, then, I have been in the Territory nearly eight weeks as one of the clerks of the United States Investigating Committee, and during the time have been to Lecompton, Lawrence, Leavenworth City, Westport, and other places where said committee have been holding their sessions, and have been an eye-witness of many of the highhanded outrages perpetrated by the Abolitionists upon citizens of the Territory, and acts of resist-ance against the laws both of the Territory and of the United States.

I was present in the town of Lawrence on the 23d of April last, when Sheriff Jones was shot, though he had a body-guard of twelve or thirteen United States Dragoons with him at the time for his protection and to assist in enforcing the laws. The wound was a deep and dangerous one, the ball taking effect near the spine and ranging between the shoulder-blade. I saw the wound probed and dressed by the surgeons. No one expected him to recover. I saw the rabble in the streets of Lawrence that day while Jones had a man ar-rested, and assisted by the United States troops, heaping curses and threats upon him, such as "Damu him, why don't you kill him, Hunt?" "Why don't you shoot him, Hunt?" "damn such laws; damn such officers; damn such a country and damn such a President." I saw brick-bats thrown at the officers of the law and the lieutenant who was assisting in the execution of the laws This Hunt was the prisoner. All these things were done in Lawrence on the 23d day of April last in my presence, and other outrageous acts too rous to mention.

I was present on the 8th of May in Lawrence when the United States Marshal attempted to arrest Ex-Governor A. H. Reeder, by virtue of a writ of attachment issued by Judge Lecompte, of the First Judicial District of Kansas Territory, United States Court, and was present and heard Mr. Reeder tell the Marshal that "if he laid his hands on him to execute the writ he would do it as the peril of his life," and the armed populace shouted and backed Reeder in his position, and threatened the Marshal's life, and so he was com pelled to desist and return the writ to the Court not executed. There were two hundred men, armed, supporting and giving "aid and comfort' to Reeder in setting the law at defiance.

On the 24th of April, in a public meeting held in Lawrence, to express disapproval of indignation at the shooting of Sheriff Jones, Charles Robon made a speech, and in his speech declared that it was his opinion that Jones was shot by pro-slavery man, thus adding insult to injury, and boldly asserted that the Free-State party never meant to submit to the laws, and used this damna ble language: "I had rather obey the laws emana-ting from hell, than submit to the laws of the Cerritory;" that they intended to resist them to a erritory; that they intended to the there has been no bloody issue." Since that time there has been no leace in the Territory. On the 21st of May, the ndignant citizens of Kansas Territory in striving uphold the laws destroyed the Free-State Hotel organized querrilla parties, and spread terror and dismay through the country. They have swept the country south of Kansas river with fire and sword. On Saturday, May 24, a party of them, in Franklin county, murdered a Mr. Wilkerson, old Mr. Doyle, and two of his sons, and two of the Shermans, all in the same neighborhood. These as ready to fight with any other weapon, if need | murders were committed in the most shocking and parbarous manner, and it is said that some of the vere dreadfully mutilated kefore they were killed by cutting off their hands, noses, ears, and the like Thus it is that men have been dragged from their beds at the dead hour of night, and their throats cut amid the cries and entreaties of their wive time last week an attack was made on the town of man by the name of Tishmaker, or Tishmonger was killed on our side.

On the 2d day of June, Captain H. C. Pate, and twenty-eight men were out in the neighborhood of Black-Jack Point, near the Santa Fe road, forty miles from Westport, for the purpose of executing certain writs upon those who had viola ted the laws, and were attacked by a gnerrilla party of Abolitionists, commanded by one Brown, numbering one hundred and twenty-five men. After a sharp conflict, in which Captain Pate had some of his men severely wounded (and it is believed two of them mortally wounded), he hoisted a flag of truce. Capt. Pate sent one man and a prison-er whom he had with him to carry the flag of truce They were sen back, with the demand that Capt. Pate should ear the flag himself. He did so, and when he came up under the flag of truce Brown ordered twelve of his men to seize him and hold him as a prisoner of war. They then held a cocked pistol to Capt. Pate's breast, and told him if he did no urrender they would blow him through. Thus ne was deceived and entrapped and compelled to urrender, except six men, who made good their men was wounded in the side. I saw the bullet when taken out. I saw some three or four of Colonel Buford's me Southern men-who were made prisoners while driving wagons along the highway. They told me that the Abolitionists had taken all their catsle, robbed their wagons, taken their arms and all he money they had, and then heaped every posole insult upon them; that they tied their hand ehind their backs and took them out to han them, once or twice, but did not; that they would get their teeth and shake their fists in their faces while shey were prisoners, and say: "You d-coutherners, this is the way we will serve you all." I saw an old man by the name of Bourne, from the Wakarusa, a few days ago, and he teld me that the Abolition guerrillas had taken all his oxen, castle, horses, and robbed him of all he had. and driven him and his family clean out of the country, and burnt his house.

Mr. Joseph Bornard had his provision-store robbed and everything rifled to the extent of $8,000 or $10,000, some few days ago, out south west. His buildings were burnt, as I am told. have seen in Westport, within the last week, a good number of families who were driven ou of the Territory by these desperadoes, and who were poor, bereft, penniless, and seeking refuge from their relentless enemies within the limits of the State. Some of these families consisted of women and children only, some of whom said that their husbands were killed, and others that they were prisoners, or were driven and pursued on the country. These scenes of suffering and dis-tress I have witnessed in a civilized country, and such will ever be the calamities of a civil war. rather a social war, such as that now waged in Kansas Territory. All of these horrid acts have been committed in the "name of the Norther

Again, one of the Donelsons, with a small com pany of five or six men, was fired upon by these bandits, and one of his men had his horse killed under him, and another was slightly wounded or grazed about the head. This happened last week. It is estimated that twenty-three or twenty-four of our men—I mean of the party who sustain the dered, and made away with recently, and perhaps a greater number than this. The pro-slavery par-ty have doubtless, in self-defense, killed and delayed lending his aid in informing the people of the wrongs his Yankee brothren have sustained in Kansas. Some one of the wrongs his Yankee brothren have sustained in Kansas. Here we are—some of us certainly, and I the attack on Franklin, and in the battle with Captain Pate they lost three killed and severa I saw the old lady Doyle, widow of the one who was murdered in Franklin county. She came before the United States Kansas Investigating Co mittee and desired to give her evidence same purport as the foregoing statement which I have made, but her testimony was ruled out by the majority of the committee, and her affidavit was taken before a justice of the peace by Geo. King, and will be printed with the evidence as ruled out testimony. Her story is indeed a lampetable one She is an object of much nity. nentable one. She is an object of much pity naving lost all, husband and two sons, except he having lost all, husband and two sons, except her last and only son, a lad of some fourteen years of age, and this one was only spared to her after prayers and tears, and entreaties. When the bandiss were in the act of leading this last one out for the purpose of killing him also, the poor old woman, already overcome with anguish, exclaim-ed, as she states in her affidavit, "Oh, men, will ed, as she states in her affidavit, "Oh, men, will you not spare me this last and only child? Are you not flesh and blood, and have you no children?" One of these men, melted with the touching appeal of the poor woman, said he had a child, and that the boy should not be killed.

But I have not time to give you further details of the horrid war which has been raging in Kansas "for some weeks and which is

Do They Do It? YES, THEY DO; AND MORE that they are represented, notwithstanding some caple are prejudiced against Patent Medicine. Doubtes some of the medicines offered to the public are orthless as a means of curing diseases; but others are critorious, which need only a trial to convince the lost incredulous. most incredulous.

We say with confidence, and have the papers to show, that the Soverence Balm Fills of P. Childs & Co. are an excellent Family Medicine. No family should be without them, as they are convenient and very safe and reliable for Dy-servery, Flux, and all diseases common to warm weather. They do not prostrate the system, but assist nature in the performance of its duties.

trate the system, but assist nature in the petermande of its duties.

For diseases peculiar to females, the Sovereign Balm Fills are not surpassed in virtues. Being composed entirely of vegetable remedies, and free from all acrimonious or injurious qualities, with their great on a tive properties, they are one of the best remedies for disease, now known to medical science. BIRD'S PATENT STEAM-BOILERS. HIS PLAN OF ARRANGING Boilers combines the strength of the present Boilers in use with the economy of the low-pressure system. They have been in use for two years, and ample certificates in regard to their priormance can be produced. The Patentee, desirous of introducing them on steamboats, offers one-half interest in the Mississippi river and its tributaries to the first one that adopts them. Call and examine the model, in the office of Swager & Dawson. The Patentee is at present at the National Hotel.
